ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant Marcel Uzowuru is hereby committed on Counts 11 and 14 of the Indictment, to TIME SERVED.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5), the determination of restitution is deferred until 90 days from the date of this judgment. An Amended judgment will be entered after such determination of percentage of each victim.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years. This term consists of five years on each of Counts 11 and 14 of the 14-Count Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;

USA vs. Marcel UzowuruDocket No.: CR 02-01230-RMT-3

3. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name;
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

On the Government's motion, the Court ORDERS the remaining counts of the Indictment dismissed..

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
